OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 27 March 1970

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Miss Anspach, in the office of Representative Dante B. Fascell (D., Fla.), called for information on the oversight of the Agency by the Legislative and Executive Branches. We will send her an Agency brochure which she believes will be all that is needed to close out a constituent inquiry.

2. [REDACTED] Received a call from Mr. Charles Reichardt, Director, Division of Intelligence, Atomic Energy Commission, who is reviewing the AEC handling of the [REDACTED] on TOKAMAK to ascertain what personnel were actually involved at AEC. At his request I filled him in on the request for a copy of the report received by this office from Captain Ed Bauser, Staff Director of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

3. [REDACTED] Met with Mrs. Dorothy Maneri, Executive Secretary to Representative Barber B. Conable (R., N. Y.), and reviewed with her the current membership of the "SOS" club and "Chowder and Marching Society." One member of the "CM," Mr. Joseph Holt (a former congressman), no longer has any known Government association and will not receive notice of this meeting. I left with Mrs. Maneri the maps requested by Representative Conable.
